

1948, “The Centenary Watch”, No. XX/1948 5704.60.02

This watch has never been worn and comes with box and papers. 100%

Collector's Series Number Five from the Museum Collection. Made in 2004. Very fine and rare, self-winding, water-resistant, 18K pink gold gentleman's wristwatch with co-axial escapement, and an 18K pink gold Omega buckle. C. Three-body, solid, polished, curved lugs, back numbered and engraved: "1948, The Omega Museum Collection, The Centenary Watch, Collector's Series Number Five", sapphire crystal. Dial is Two-tone copper-colored with applied faceted dart indexes on a plain outer reserve, inner minute track, sunk subsidiary seconds. Pink gold dauphine hands. Movement is Calibre. 2202, C.O.S.C. certified, rhodium-plated, fausses-côtes decoration, co-axial escapement, monometallic balance, Breguet balance spring, micrometer regulator. Diam. 36 mm. Thickness 10.5 mm. Dial, case and movement signed.

Price: $9800.00